

 Permanent Mission of Austria
to the United Nations in Geneva

 INTERAGENCY PANEL
ON JUVENILE JUSTICE

The Permanent Mission of Austria
to the United Nations in Geneva

The Interagency Panel on Juvenile Justice (IPJJ)

cordially invite you to a side-event on Human Rights in the administration of justice

How can the Human Rights Council further improve the protection of the Human Rights of children deprived of their liberty?

Tuesday 18 September 2012
12:00 pm to 2:00 pm

Palais des Nations, Geneva
Room XXVII

Chair

His Excellency Mr. Christian Strohal
Permanent Representative of Austria to the United Nations in Geneva

Speakers

Ms. Nathalie Prouvez, Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR)

Ms. Kirsten Sandberg, Committee on the Rights of the Child (CRC)

Mr. Bernard Boëton, Terre des hommes – child relief (TDH)

Short videos directed by young people in conflict/contact with the law with support by UNICEF will be screened before and between each intervention.

Translation available in English & French
Coffee & snacks provided

The speakers and participants will be invited to share their thoughts on how to better protect children from violations of their rights, strengthen the commitment of all concerned stakeholders and enhance accountability mechanisms. The focus will be on identifying the priorities for actions, in particular those that could be undertaken by the Human Rights Council.