

Speak to the world!

A consultation on children and young people's involvement in international decision-making

Saturday 20 November 2010

- Do you live in England?
- Are you aged 17 or under with some experience of being involved in international decision-making?
- Are you aged 17 or under and wanting to get involved in international decision-making?
- Are you over 18 with some experience of being involved in international decision-making when you were under 18?
- Do you want to share your views on how children and young people can be more involved in European and international decision-making?

If the answer is 'yes' to any of these questions, then we want to hear from you!

The Children's Rights Alliance for England (CRAE) is running a consultation day on Saturday 20 November 2010 in London for children and young people to tell us about chances they've had or would like to get involved in decision-making internationally and in Europe.

Date: Saturday 20 November 2010

Time: 10.00 – 4.30pm

Venue: 7 Dials Community Centre, Covent Garden,
42 Earlham Street London, WC2H 9LA

There are 100 places for children and young people from all over England at this event. It's first come, first served, so book your place as soon as possible.

To attend this event you must be:

- Aged 17 or under with some experience of being involved in international decision-making
- Aged 17 or under and wanting to get involved in international decision-making
- Over 18 with some experience of being involved in international decision-making when you were under 18.

To book your place at the event, please complete and return the booking form to CRAE by midday on Friday 15 October 2010.

Please note: some limited funds are available to contribute towards travel costs. To discuss this in more detail, please contact: Carla Garnelas on 020 7278 8222 ext 25 or at activist@crae.org.uk

The day will include free children's rights training and all participants will receive a copy of our state of children's rights report for children and young people after the event. Lunch and refreshments will be provided.

This consultation event is part of a Europe-wide project on children and young people's involvement in international decision-making. The information collected at the consultation will be written up into a report which will be sent to the European Commission. Participants in the consultation event will not be identified by name in the report.

To come along to Speak to the world! on Saturday 20 November in London, fill in this form and send it back to us as soon as possible:

Speak to the World, Children's Rights Alliance for England, 94 White Lion Street, London N1 9PF

To find out more about the event, call Carla on 020 7278 8222 ext. 25 or e-mail her at activist@crae.org.uk

We can't hold a place for you at the event until we've received your booking form. The deadline for sending us your form is midday on Friday 15 October 2010.
